

Final Project Assembly and Conference

Community Resilience to Extreme Weather (CREW) is an EPSRC-funded research project, established to develop a set of tools for improving the capacity for resilience of local communities to the impacts of future extreme weather events

25th November 2011
at RICS, London
from 09:30am

Venue:
RICS
12 Great George Street
Parliament Square
London
SW1P 3AD

Keynote speakers:

Lord Selborne GBE FRS, Chair of the Partners' Board, LWEC
Roger Street, Technical Director of UKCIP

To reserve your free place:

Registration www.extreme-weather-impacts.net
Contact Dr Stephen Hallett, s.hallett@cranfield.ac.uk

Engineering and Physical Sciences
Research Council

